Need of the Workshop:

In this knowledge explosion society to bring effectiveness in dissemination of information, development of creative contents and incorporation of innovative information and communication, technologies plays a vital role at all level of education system. For the upcoming digital generation to create a digital teaching- learning environment, mastering ICT skills and utilizing ICT is of outmost importance in every educator's profession. E-content serves this purpose in its various forms such as web-based learning, computer based learning, mobile-based learning, virtual classrooms, and digital collaboration. It is a combination of text, audio, video, images, animation with visual effects that is delivered via internet, satellite broadcast or mobile technology.

E-content has become a very valuable and powerful tool of education in this contemporary education system; it is the newest method of instruction that can be used to create an information rich society where everyone, irrespective of caste, religion, race, region, gender etc., are empowered to create, receive, share and utilize information and knowledge for their economic, social, cultural and political upliftment and development. The use of e-content has transformed teaching in several ways. In the process of e-learning, structured and validated e-content serves as an effective virtual teacher. Today, the educators are able to generate their own resources and consequently have more control over the classroom than they have had in the past.

E-content development is the heart of teaching learning process. Although content development plays a key role in e-learning, it is undoubtedly not an easy process. It requires expert knowledge in the subject area, patience in creating the necessary objects that make up quality and a high sense of creativity in structuring and sequencing the topics to make a complete whole. From this we can predict that e-Content production enriches the e-learning in a dynamic way. It is said that people are visual minded. They retain 20% of what they hear. 50% of what they hear and see. And probably, 100% of what they hear and see and do.

About the Workshop:

Shikshan Prasarak Mandal, Anadur establishment this year 2019. organized during the year as part founder secretary Alure Guruji on behalf of Commerce College Andur in Bridge, Ahmednagar on 9 & 10th national workshop on Content Resources has been is completing 60 years of its Various programs have been of it, under the guidance of Shikshanmaharshi Hon. S. N. Jawahar Arts, Science and Commerce College Andur in Bridge, Ahmednagar collaboration with Knowledge August 10, 2019, a two-day Development for Learning organized.

The modern era is a media is inevitable in field has no exception for digital era. Use of electronic every field, so educational it. Teaching with the help of

Hon. S. N. Alure Guruji expressed his welcome by honoring all the dignitaries.

Speaking on this occasion, Guruji said that the teacher is an important factor in the education system. From Gurukula to till today, Gurujans have a unique universal importance. A teacher empowers the mind, brain and wrist of the student to enable him to live life. Today's era is an era of competition, an era of new technology. Teachers also need to be updated to improve the quality of education by keeping abreast of new technology. The teachers appealed to the participating teachers to make sincere efforts to develop the students by imbibing new teaching methods through such educational workshops.

Principal of Jawahar College, Anadur Dr. Umakant Chanshetti gave the introductory speech. In his speech, he summarized the scope and objectives of the workshop. He focused on the main purpose of this workshop is to provide the facility and training to all the teachers from Primary level to higher educational institute teachers as well as students for acquiring and developing e-content techniques and utilization of it in teaching and learning process. He also briefly introduced the sixty years graph of the institution to the guests and participants.

Speaking on the occasion of the inauguration of this national workshop, Vice-Chancellor of Solapur University Dr. Mrs. Mrinalini Fadnavis said that the present age is the age of technology. In this 21st century, the doors of education in all the universities of the world are open. Sitting in Andur, we can study Cambridge University courses. This is only possible with this 21st century technology. Today the world is in our hands. With one click, we can get the entire world's information at our sitting place through the internet. Today's generation is the smart generation of this digital technology era. We have to go with this new generation. So it is now the order of the day to embrace new technologies to empower students.

I appreciate this Jawahar College for organizing such a national level workshop to introduce new technology to students, teachers and faculty in a rural area like Andur.

It will surely benefit the teachers and students of this area. The use of e-content for research is very important. If we teach students by developing and using e-content learning resources instead of teaching them in traditional way, students will absorb 100% and teachers should try in that regard. Former President of our country Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam has said that our country will become a superpower only on the efficiency of teachers like us, and then teachers and professors should increase their efficiency. She also informed to all that, now UGC has decided to give financial support to the faculties who wish to develop e-content learning resources for your subject. I hope this workshop will inspire and motivate you to do better for yourself as well as for students. I am wishing all the best for your efforts.

While concluding the presidency, Prof. Dr. Ashok Mohekar said that now a days dissection has been removed from practical teaching of Zoology. Students have to be told about animal anatomy only theoretically. If with the help of such digital technologies develop the learning resources we can thought in a virtual way, it will be easier to understand and learn animal anatomy and dissection to students. We should definitely implement such technology in our teaching.

It is certainly commendable that Jawahar College has cultivated the tradition of moving with the times. Taking full advantage of the fact that Jawahar have provided this opportunity to the teachers in this area, if science, language and social sciences professors create short videos and broadcast them on YouTube, not only your students but all the students and other scholars of the world will benefit from it.
